

This topographic map illustrates a section of the Danube river, spanning from Oberzell in the northwest to Jochenstein in the southeast. The map features several key elements:

- Planning Lines: Multiple colored lines (green, blue, purple, red) represent different planning scenarios or boundaries along the river's course.
- Biotope Areas: Three specific areas are labeled "Biotope FL2 LK Passau" in green text, indicating protected ecological zones.
- Administrative and Protection Zones: Labels include "Schutzgebiete NN2000 DKM" (protected areas) in blue and "Kasten" in black, likely referring to specific administrative or land management divisions.
- Elevation and Contours: The map uses brown contour lines to show elevation changes, with numerical values such as 2211.0, 2210.0, 2209.0, 2208.0, 2207.0, 2206.0, and 2204.0.
- Infrastructure and Landmarks: Key landmarks include "Roning" and "KW Jochenstein" (power plant) in the southeast. A small settlement or industrial area is visible near Oberzell.
- Technical Data: Several red text blocks provide technical specifications and coordinates:
